CHINATOWN ABLAZE WITH FUND SPIRIT

Fete Planned for Saturday Night Will Charm City's Thousands.

MORE BROOKLYN PARTIES

Entertainment and Flag Raising Will Be Held in Roosevelt Street.

A Chinese fete for THE SUN Tobacco Pund will be held in Chinatown Octo-

Everybody has heard of this Oriental parter in the western world, everybody interested in it, but not everybody has en it. Saturday night's party will afford an excellent opportunity to see it. All the mysterious quarter compre sended by a block or two of Mott street a block of Pell street and that queer half ircle Doyers street, will be open to urlous eyes whose curiosity need be uner no restraint on this occasion, for the spectators are to be honored guests of he Chinese residents.

The Chinese merchants and resident who make up their part of the Chinese American Citizens Alliance have shown mastery of detail worthy of western mitation in all the preliminary arrange ments for THE SUN Tobacco Fund party Their aim is to celebrate the big fact hat fifty-four of their sons and brothers are in active service in the army of

There will be plenty of music, both oriental and Occidental, the decoration of the streets will be extremely gorgeous, including a display of flags of the cut, including a display of hags of the chinese Republic recently imported and sever before shown. In a word, the full interest of the Chinese is aroused, and according to Lee B. Lok, president of th alliance, what his people attempt to do for The Sun fund will be well and decrease.

Perhaps it is as well to may at once there will be no charge of admission. A sight of the beautiful decorations, a hearing of the unique programme will cost nothing. Come, then, on this gen-eral invitation; the fund expects you. The block party held on 164th street, between Amsterdam and Edgecombe court before Judge Julius M. There is to be a monster band and after honors have been paid to the boys in France everybody may dance.

Parties in Brooklyn.

Two block parties take place in Brooklyn Saturday night, one in Lin-den street and the other in Moffatt atreel. The latter was postponed in or-der not to interfere with the Liberty Lean drive. The additional time has rmitted the managers of this affair broaden the scope of the party and add a great deal in the way of unusual entertainment and, of course, they ex-pect proportionately greater receipts for the fund in consequence.

On Roosevelt street between Madison and Oak streets Saturday night a block party and flag raising will be held by the neighbors to honor 106 of their boys who have gone abroad to fight for their country. The proceeds of this party of the street of the of the stree who have gone abroad to fight for their country. The proceeds of this party after all expenses are paid will come to Tur Sun Tobacco Fund. Lieut. Molinelli, a chaplain in the American Expeditionary Force, will bless the flag. The party held on Sixty-first street between First and Second avenues last Saturday night was a complete success. The street had been decorated in a novel and beautiful way. The fund benefited by the receipts, amounting to 1166.

DRIVER ACCUSED: 2 DEATHS.

Automobile Accident.

Edith Mortimer, daughter L. I., who was arrested Saturday after an automobile she was driving ran down and killed two men on Broadway, Flushing, appeared yesterday in the Flushing court as complainant against Charles Murray, a negro, of 15 Chauncey street, Brooklyn, whom she charged with reckless driving.

The case against Murray was put over until to-day, when Miss Mortimer will be arraigned again. She was accompanied by her father, who offered his home at Wheatley Hills as security for $15,000 bail. The court was not able to accept this and Mr. Mortimer produced a certified check for the amount. Miss Mortimer was released.

Miss Mortimer will contend that Murray crowded her car in the direction of the automobile before which the two

This is th same organization that played a promi nent part in the election of Mayor Hylan a year ago. Preston P. Lynn, head of the league, presided and Mayor Hylan was the principal speaker.

"Mr. Smith is entitled to the active support of this and of all civic organizations in this city and State that have for their object the bettering of civic conditions," said the Mayor. "Never has there been a candidate for high political office so well fitted by training and experience in the service comparatively poor man, yet he is of the people of the State as is candidate. n honor, integrity and political ex-

Mr. Smith was asked yesterday if he would be independent of Tammany or any partisan control if he should be elected Governor. He made this reply: "I sm asked to state what my attitude as Governor will be with respect to the political organization with which I am affiliated.

It shows that the women in the city are with him and that he will receive a substantial majority of their votes. Up-State the poll shows that Smith is running about even with the Republican nominee. This impartial vote forecasts Smith's election by a substantial ma-jority. No wonder the Republican leaders are in despair. "In their private poil taken on a fast train the Republican managers give Whitman a substantial majority. They must have taken the poll on the train on the way from Albany on a Friday afternoon when it was loaded down with office holders on their way to spend the week end in the city, at the expense of the State."

Mr. Smith, as well as Gov. Whitman, was obliged to remain idle so far as speaking went yesterday. Mr. Smith's Hornell engagement having been cancelled because of the influenza, plans were made for a meeting at Haverstraw. At the last minute this, too, was given up for the same reason. given up for the same reason.
